F. READING COMPREHENSION (51-62)

PASSAGE 1 - A CITY THAT IS CHANGING

Ten years ago, Lan lived in a quiet neighbourhood where most people knew one another. Today, new apartment buildings and shopping centres have appeared. The wider roads and public buses make it easier to get around, but more vehicles also mean heavier traffic at rush hour.

Lan thinks city development brings both benefits and problems. She appreciates the new library and sports centre, which provide useful facilities for teenagers. However, she worries that small parks are disappearing. She and her classmates have joined a youth group that plants trees and encourages residents to walk or cycle on short trips. Lan believes that if local people work together, the neighbourhood can remain a pleasant place to live.

51. What is the main idea of the passage?

A. Why buses are always late
B. Changes in a neighbourhood and a community response
C. The history of apartment buildings
D. How to run a shopping centre

B. There are no local green projects.
C. Residents can help improve urban living conditions.
D. Public transport has disappeared.

PASSAGE 2 - HEALTHY HABITS DURING EXAM WEEK

Minh used to revise late into the night because he thought more study hours always meant better results. However, he often felt tired in morning lessons and forgot information quickly. A school counsellor suggested a different approach: make a weekly study plan, divide long tasks into smaller parts, and take short breaks after periods of focused work. She also advised him to sleep regularly, exercise and put his phone away while studying.

At first, Minh was concerned that taking breaks would waste time. After two weeks, he noticed that he could finish his homework more efficiently. He also felt calmer before tests. Minh now understands that studying effectively is not simply about spending more hours at a desk; it is about using time wisely and protecting physical and mental health.

57. What problem did Minh have at first?

A. He had no homework.
B. He forgot information and felt tired.
C. He disliked all subjects.
D. He exercised too much.

58. What did the counsellor suggest?
