PASSAGE 1 · Questions 36–40

Every Saturday, Mai spends an hour taking care of plants on the balcony. Her favourite hobby is gardening. Her brother, Minh, prefers making paper models. Last month, they started a small project at school. They collected empty plastic bottles and used them as flowerpots. Their teacher says that growing plants helps students relax and reuse things instead of throwing them away. Although Minh does not enjoy gardening very much, he helps Mai water the plants on hot days. This weekend, they plan to give some young plants to their neighbours.

36. What is Mai's favourite hobby?

A. Making paper models
B. Gardening
C. Playing badminton
D. Drawing pictures

37. What did Mai and Minh use the empty bottles for?

A. Carrying water to school
B. Collecting coins
C. Growing plants in them
D. Making school bags

38. Why does their teacher like the project?

A. It is expensive.
B. It teaches students to cook.
C. It takes no time.
D. It helps students relax and reuse things.

39. Which statement is TRUE about Minh?

A. He sometimes helps Mai with the plants.
B. He dislikes making paper models.
C. He waters the plants every day.
D. He started the project alone.

40. What can we learn from Mai and Minh's project?

A. All hobbies must be done alone.
B. A hobby can also help the environment.
C. Plastic bottles cannot be reused.
D. Only adults can grow plants.

PASSAGE 2 · Questions 41–45

Last Sunday, twenty students from Class 7A visited a community kitchen. They arrived at eight o'clock and spent the morning washing vegetables and packing meals.
